

Cells were thawed according to the 10X Genomics Sample Preparation Demonstrated protocols, then processed twice (spleen, thymus, lymph node) or once (bone marrow) through the Dead Cell Removal Kit. Cell quantity and viability was assessed as described above and deemed adequate for scRNA-seq (>75% live cells per sample).